

TALK OF THE TOWNE

31st Annual Antique Affair!

Old Towne Orange is rolling out the red carpet for the annual Antique Affair, to take place throughout the Historic Plaza the weekend of February 17, 18 & 19. This popular event features the finest wares of the many renowned antique merchants in Old Towne Orange, as residents together for a weekend that celebrates our longstanding tradition of antiques in Old Towne Orange.”

Coinciding with President's Day, the Antique Affair will showcase events related to our nation's history. Among the presentations will be a display of early-century Presidential plates by Lenox, to be featured at A&P Collectables, located at 151 North Glassell St.

Country Roads Antiques & Gardens at 204 West Chapman Ave. will be hosting a Presidents' Weekend Sale featuring great antiques at incredible prices. Patrons are encouraged to bring a purse filled with personal hygiene products to donate to the Orange YWCA's "My Sister Joanie's Purse Project," and receive an entry blank to win a $100 shopping spree at Country Roads.

Along with a host of fun and informative activities, the Antique Affair is also a time to meet with neighbors and friends who enjoy the many offerings of Old Towne, including fine dining establishments, cafes, bakeries, gourmet boutiques and much more.

For more information about the Antique Affair, please check our website at www.OrangeReview.com ●

An Antique Affair to Remember!

OLD TOWNE ORANGE
Antique Affair
Sat, Sun, Mon Feb 17, 18 & 19 10am-6pm
Featuring Our Finest in Antiques, Expertise, Sales & Service.

well as festive, in-store activities, special collections, demonstrations, refreshments, and more.

“Old Towne Orange is widely hailed for having the best offerings in antiques, expertise and service in Southern California,” said Event Organizer and Antique Mall Owner Daniel Jensen. “The annual Antique Affair, now in its 31st year, brings merchants, patrons and